Too many companies are managed not by leaders, but by mere role players and faceless bureaucrats. What does it take to be a real leader—one who is confident in who she is and what she stands for, and who truly inspires people to achieve extraordinary results? Rob Goffee and Gareth Jones argue that leaders don't become great by aspiring to a list of universal character traits. Rather, effective leaders are authentic: they deploy individual strengths to engage followers' hearts, minds, and souls. They are skillful at consistently being themselves, even as they alter their behaviors to respond effectively in changing contexts. In this lively and practical book, Goffee and Jones draw from extensive research to reveal how to hone and deploy one's unique leadership assets while managing the inherent tensions at the heart of successful leadership: showing emotion and withholding it, getting close to followers while keeping distance, and maintaining individuality while "conforming enough." Underscoring the social nature of leadership, the book also explores how leaders can remain attuned to the needs and expectations of followers. Why Should Anyone Be Led By You? will forever change how we view, develop, and practice the art of leadership, wherever we live and work. From the coalfields of West Virginia to the small country of Haiti in the middle of the Caribbean Sea, John and Joyce Hanson share their 43-year missionary journey with writer Christine Barbetti-Feamster. Through numerous tropical storms, a kidnapping, an earthquake that threatened to destroy all they ever worked for, and personal tragedy, John and Joyce's faith has triumphed for the glory of God. When you read Harvesting Haiti-Led by the Master be prepared to laugh, cry, and be awed by the miracles of a faithful God who chose a humble coal miner's son and his wife to bring salvation to thousands of lost souls in Haiti. "Inspiring...Genuine" -Stewart Farley "Dynamic Testimony...Laced with Adventure" -Dave Hanson "Superb...Powerful" -Donald Stelling "Led by the Spirit is an interdisciplinary analysis and evaluation of people's claims to divine guidance that contributes to the understanding of these experiences at two levels. In terms of methodology, this study is an exercise in practical theology - a means of deriving explanations of God, self, and world from the actions of a community of faith - with the practices associated with discernment and decision making in the Pentecostal tradition being the focal point for reflection. In terms of content, insight from object relations psychology and Tillich's theology are woven together with explanations from Pentecostal believers to provide a multilayered understanding and evaluation of the meaning and significance of these experiences."--BOOK JACKET.Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America, Inc. All Rights Reserved New York Times Bestseller What are the consequences if the people given control over our government have no idea how it works? "The election happened," remembers Elizabeth Sherwood-Randall, then deputy secretary of the Department of Energy. "And then there was radio silence." Across all departments, similar stories were playing out: Trump appointees were few and far between; those that did show up were shockingly uninformed about the functions of their new workplace. Some even threw away the briefing books that had been prepared for them. Michael Lewis's brilliant narrative takes us into the engine rooms of a government under attack by its own leaders. In Agriculture the funding of vital programs like food stamps and school lunches is being slashed. The Commerce Department may not have enough staff to conduct the 2020 Census properly. Over at Energy, where international nuclear risk is managed, it's not clear there will be enough inspectors to track and locate black market uranium before terrorists do. Willful ignorance plays a role in these looming disasters. If your ambition is to maximize short-term gains without regard to the long-term cost, you are better off not knowing those costs. If you want to preserve your personal immunity to the hard problems, it's better never to really understand those problems. There is upside to ignorance, and downside to knowledge. Knowledge makes life messier. It makes it a bit more difficult for a person who wishes to shrink the world to a worldview. If there are dangerous fools in this book, there are also heroes, unsung, of course. They are the linchpins of the system—those public servants whose knowledge, dedication, and proactivity keep the machinery running. Michael Lewis finds them, and he asks them what keeps them up at night. Being Divinely Led by the Lord As a child of God, being divinely led by the Lord is fundamental concept in every phase of life. Throughout the Old and New Testaments of the Bible - man has received divine guidance. As Christians it is important to know the differences between the leading on the old and the New Testaments, The Word of God is the ultimate divine guidance. The ways of being led may have seemed different at varying times and yet central to the guidance is the need for the obedience by those being led. Today - those principles remain firmly in place. Through this book Chuckie Morsi takes the reader through the ultimate guide book of how the Lord leads His children, and the consequences and the rewards experienced by His children. It is about knowing and understanding the basic principles of enjoying God's lead and guidance. The aim is to overcome the myths of the traditions of men, which may come dressed up as God's leading and consequently keep the believers in bondage. "Howbeit when he, the spirit of TRUTH, is come, he will GUIDE you into ALL TRUTH: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come" John 16:13 Jesetta "Jet" Hutchens has issues. In Crowning Glory, Book 1 of the Restore My Soul series, the death of Jet's sister leaves her with an unforgiving heart and a firestorm of anger. Jet needs Jesus, and handsome, single minister Rossi Tolliver is just the person to help her find a love led by the Spirit. The bestselling workbook and grammar guide, revised and updated! Christians know that we are to walk the walk that Christ walked, making everyday decisions as God would have us do. The recent popularity of the WWJD? Movement highlights this desire. Yet few Christians take the time to explore God's Will in every aspect of their lives and set goals that reflect a biblical approach to everyday life. D. James Kennedy uses biblical principles forged in his own life and in the life of the church to highlight practical ways for believers to go deeper in their spiritual walk and set long-term goals according to God's Will. Readers will learn to partner with Christ and set goals that will affect the way they interact with family, friends, church, community, colleagues, and their environment. When you became a Christian you invited and received Jesus Christ into your heart. This is God's plan of salvation in Jesus Christ. The Bible tells us that Jesus Christ is the last Adam. In a similar way, Adam invited and received the word of the serpent. He deliberately violated his temporary spiritual probation in the Garden of Eden. In this thought-provoking book, How to be Led and Guided by the Spirit of God, Volume One: What Did We Do? Bishop Walter K. Laidler Jr. explains: 1) How to be led and how to be guided by the Spirit of God 2) Sixteen manifestations of the blessing 3) Eight things that led to Adam's downfall 4) Five remedies of God for Adam's offspring 5) Five sins of religion and tradition. Knowledge about these topics should radically change how you walk by faith. Learn to be led by the Spirit of God and be guided by the Word of God. Rom. 8:12-14 (9-11) ; Phil. 2:12-13 (12-13). Are you an authentic leader? Too many companies are managed not by leaders but by mere role players and faceless bureaucrats. What would it take to replace these empty suits with real leaders--men and women who are confident in who they are and what they stand for and who truly inspire people to achieve extraordinary results? Rob Goffee and Gareth Jones argue that leaders don't become great by aspiring to a list of universal character traits. Rather, effective leaders are authentic: they deploy individual strengths to engage followers' hearts, minds, and souls. Authentic leaders are skillful at consistently being themselves, even as they alter their behavior to respond effectively to changing contexts. In short, the authors present a powerful case: that it takes "being yourself, in context, with skill" to be a successful, authentic leader--and they show you how to do exactly that. In this lively and practical book, Goffee and Jones draw from extensive research to reveal how to hone and deploy your unique leadership assets while managing the inherent tensions at the heart of successful leadership: when to show emotion and when to withhold it, how to get close to followers while maintaining an appropriate role distance, and maintaining your individuality while "conforming enough" to gain traction and lead change. Underscoring the inherently social nature of leadership, the book also explores how leaders can stay attuned to the needs and expectations of followers. Why Should Anyone Be Led by You? will forever change how we view, develop, and practice the art of leadership, wherever we live and work. As a result of spiritual rebellion against God and living in this present age without Him, we are spiritually blind, spiritually deaf, and have spiritually blinded minds. The need for salvation from this condition is met in Jesus Christ, who is The Way, The Truth, and The Life of God. In this book, How to be Led by the Spirit of God and Guided by the Word of God, Volume Two: "Where Are We Now?" Bishop Laidler clarifies what religion teaches with what the Bible says: 1) Are temptations, trials and tribulations really sent by God? 2) Nine effects of "the curse in the earth" and "the curse on the ground..." 3) Seven misconceptions about these two curses... 4) The effect of the curse and the carnal mind... Knowledge about these topics should radically change how you see and perceive your present situation. Through this teaching series, you will learn how to progress from your past circumstances to an overcoming lifestyle of faith in God. My grandmother's word to me, "Every tub has to sit on its own bottom." New from Bestselling Proverbs 31 Author Suzanne Eller! Without realizing it, we've gotten lost in our own little lives. We've settled for "good enough" and days that run together in an unmemorable blur. We long for something to shake us up, but we're exhausted by the thought of it too. In her warm, vulnerable style, bestselling Proverbs 31 author Suzanne Eller shows how living and loving without limits has nothing to do with your own efforts--and it has everything to do with God's Holy Spirit. Unpacking the promises and teachings Jesus shared with the disciples about the Holy Spirit, Suzanne shows how you can stop settling and start truly living. When you learn to unwrap the gift of his presence, you'll find the world-changing, foundation-shaking, soul-stirring life of passion and purpose God is waiting to give you. A Synopsis of Book #60062 In his sequel to Devil at my Doorstep, the author focuses on events from early 1993 until the present. His focus has completely changed from his earlier and rather hard-nosed lessons, to more insightful ones, inspired by the whisperings of the Spirit. He explains how Jeanne unexpectedly came back into his life after almost twenty-seven years. He describes his conversion to the Gospel, and Jeanne's conversion to the Church. He ties up a lot of loose ends which were created earlier. Beginning with the premise that we first learn, then believe, and then know and understand, he directs us to become what we were meant to become. With this practical guide, you will go behind the scenes to see how and why manufacturers are now designing LED devices to light everything from homes and offices to streets and warehouses. You will be shown the working parts of a simple LED bulb and explains the challenges electronics companies face as they push LED lighting into the mainstream -- Minister Rossi Tolliver is ready to settle down. Besides the outward attraction, he desires a woman who is sweet, humble, and loves church folks. Sounds simple enough on paper, but when he gets off his knees, praying for that special someone to come into his life, God opens his eyes to the woman who has been there all along. There's a slight problem. Jesetta "Jet" Hutchens lives by her own set of rules. Love is the farthest thing from her mind. But Rossi, the man and the minister, is hard to resist. Is Jet ready to allow the Holy Spirit to lead her to love? An exploration of how design might be led by marginalized communities, dismantle structural inequality, and advance collective liberation and ecological survival. What is the relationship between design, power, and social justice? "Design justice" is an approach to design that is led by marginalized communities and that aims explicitly to challenge, rather than reproduce, structural inequalities. It has emerged from a growing community of designers in various fields who work closely with social movements and community-based organizations around the world. This book explores the theory and practice of design justice, demonstrates how universalist design principles and practices erase certain groups of people--specifically, those who are intersectionally disadvantaged or multiply burdened under the matrix of domination (white supremacist heteropatriarchy, ableism, capitalism, and settler colonialism)--and invites readers to "build a better world, a world where many worlds fit; linked worlds of collective liberation and ecological sustainability." Along the way, the book documents a multitude of real-world community-led design practices, each grounded in a particular social movement. Design Justice goes beyond recent calls for design for good, user-centered design, and employment diversity in the technology and design professions; it connects design to larger struggles for collective liberation and ecological survival. This fifth Missional Church Series volume seeks to bring historical clarity, biblical and theological substance, and practical guidance to church planting. The nine contributors -- many of them experienced church-planting pastors -- offer diverse yet cohesive perspectives on the Spirit's missional church planting in our time. Section One presents three essays which address missional church planting as a theological practice, with particular attention given to the activity of the Holy Spirit within the context of God's Trinitarian life. Section Two grounds church planting initiatives in the generative soil of story. The two essays in this section narrate how specific congregations provide glimpses of the Holy Spirit in action, supplying the reader with hints for how history might lead to future expectations of the Holy Spirit's ongoing church planting activity. Three essays in Section Three focus on new frontiers appearing on the church planting horizon, and an epilogue provides a sermon which orients church planting efforts in witness that flows from the heart of God. In this book readers will find fresh insights into an exciting new future created and led by the Spirit. Contributors: Daniel Anderson Leith Anderson Paul Chung Mary Sue Dehmlow Dreier Todd Hobart Harvey Kwiyani Lois Malcolm Susan Tjornehoj Miroslav Volf For three months in the spring of 1994, the African nation of Rwanda descended into one of the most vicious and bloody genocides the world has ever seen. Immaculée Ilibagiza, a young university student, miraculously survived the savage killing spree that left most of her family, friends, and a million of her fellow citizens dead. Immaculée's remarkable story of survival was documented in her first book, Left to Tell: Discovering God Amidst the Rwandan Holocaust. In Led By Faith, Immaculée takes us with her as her remarkable journey continues. Through her simple and eloquent voice, we experience her hardships and heartache as she struggles to survive and to find meaning and purpose in the aftermath of the holocaust. It is the story of a naïve and vulnerable young woman, orphaned and alone, navigating through a bleak and dangerously hostile world with only an abiding faith in God to guide and protect her. Immaculée fends off sinister new predators, seeks out and comforts scores of children orphaned by the genocide, and searches for love and companionship in a land where hatred still flourishes. Then, fearing again for her safety as Rwanda's war-crime trials begin, Immaculée flees to America to begin a new chapter of her life as a refugee and immigrant--a stranger in a strange land. With the same courage and faith in God that led her through the darkness of genocide, Immaculée discovers a new life that was beyond her wildest dreams as a small girl in a tiny village in one of Africa's poorest countries. It is in the United States, her adopted country, where Immaculée can finally look back at all that has happened to her and truly understand why God spared her life . . . so that she would be left to tell her story to the world. How does the Holy Spirit speak to you? Is it a burning in the bosom, an inner impression, or a still, small voice? Do you need confirmation from other people who are praying and from circumstances that are presumably manipulated by God to convince you to make a decision that will be smack dab in the center of God's will? David Platt is a best-selling author, and he was the pastor of the Church at Brook Hills, a megachurch in Birmingham, Alabama. In 2014, he received an offer to become the president of the International Missionary Board for the Southern Baptists, and he accepted this offer. In making his decision, David used the ideas stated in the above paragraph, along with others. His example is important since he follows fundamental Christianity. This book examines his decision-making process, compares it with scripture, and finds that it is hopelessly lacking in discerning the will of the Lord. This book also presents the way decisions should be made. Yes, the Holy Spirit does speak and lead Christians today, but He does so through God's Word alone, not through inner impressions and the manipulation of circumstances. Read, and discover how to make decisions in your life so that you know that those decisions line up with the will of the Lord. In a time when churches are focusing on finding strategies and techniques to guarantee success, a movement toward the missional church is emerging. Missional churches are communities created by the Spirit with a unique nature and identity. Purpose and strategies of the church are derivative dimensions, the activities that flow naturally from the church that is focused on Spirit-led ministry. The Ministry of the Missional Church leads pastors, ministry leaders, and laypersons through three simple arguments--the church is; the church does what it is; the church organizes what it does--in order to make sense of how missional churches work. And by focusing the work of the church as the work of the Triune God, this unique book will change the way readers think about the church and the world. Whether a teen, parent, single, or a pastor, this study will inspire all who read. Perfect for individual and small group studies. This study will lead you through a journey of deep insight, refreshing comfort, and revitalizing encouragement that will bring you to a place of renewing a greater commitment in your walk with the Lord and develop a burning desire to learn more about His Word. More than just another Bible Study: this book reveals God's awesome plan and desire for your life, to help in every aspect of your life, generating awareness of His desire to be personally involved with you. Use it as a creative and inspiring evangelistic tool to bring hope, encouragement, and direction to those who are hurting and desperately need a change. This is a much-needed message that brings strength to those who may become weary through living in a fast paced world. Anvil Forge has dedicated his life to spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ. His desire to serve the Lord has led him to volunteer and devote much of his life as a 'missionary on American soil' from public school campuses, senior homes, youth centers, churches, and in juvenile and adult prisons. The author when single lived and ministered to the inner city needs of Southern California, now resides in South Dakota with his wife and three children. 'missionaries on the prairie.' After deciding to trust Christ and give your heart to Him, you may ask yourself, "Now what? How will I know which is the right path to follow? How will I get to the place where God has called me?" Amid a dry world filled with so many distractions, difficulties, and confusion, it is essential that you stay focused on Jesus. The good news is that you do not have to cross the desert alone; the Father sent the Helper to accompany you on your journey. In Path in the Desert, the second book in the series: Path to The Promise, you will discover some of the lessons God wants you to learn as you move towards what He has promised you. With each step, you will learn to let yourself be guided by the Holy Spirit since only by submitting to His instructions will you be able to follow the path Christ created for you through His sacrifice. Go through the school of life with the certainty that, even in the most challenging situations, you will emerge victorious because you go hand in hand with your Creator. Promoting the design, application and evaluation of visually and electrically effective LED light sources and luminaires for general indoor lighting as well as outdoor and vehicle lighting, this book combines the knowledge of LED lighting technology with human perceptual aspects for lighting scientists and engineers. After an introduction to the human visual system and current radiometry, photometry and color science, the basics of LED chip and phosphor technology are described followed by specific issues of LED radiometry and the optical, thermal and electric modeling of LEDs. This is supplemented by the relevant practical issues of pulsed LEDs, remote phosphor LEDs and the aging of LED light sources. Relevant human visual aspects closely related to LED technology are described in detail for the photopic and the mesopic range of vision, including color rendering, binning, whiteness, Circadian issues, as well as flicker perception, brightness, visual performance, conspicuity and disability glare. The topic of LED luminaires is discussed in a separate chapter, including retrofit LED lamps, LED-based road and street luminaires and LED luminaires for museum and school lighting. Specific sections are devoted to the modularity of LED luminaires, their aging and the planning and evaluation methods of new LED installations. The whole is rounded off by a summary and a look towards future developments. The realization that we are new creatures in Christ Jesus is what changes our lives. If only believing in the Lord Jesus was enough, more believers would have victory over defeat. Unfortunately, too many Christians see themselves as victims. Faith in God is the victory that overcomes the world. In this book, How to be Led by the Spirit of God and Guided by the Word of God, Volume Three, How Do We Change? Laidler teaches what religion teaches with what the bible says about: 1) How to comprehend the new creation 2) How to avoid stumbling-blocks to your faith 3) The Letter of the law of God 4) The Spirit of the law of God 5) Five case studies Knowledge about these topics should radically change how you comprehend the fact that you really are a new creature in Christ Jesus.
